MR. ALPHONSE ESPOSITO - Guidance

Peace and Happiness to you

FALL — 4
WINTER — 22
SPRING — 42

WELCOME

won't you come in taste of the repast ...

and when you leave

I have a present;
just leave a bit
after you

She probably doesn't even know I'm here.

I lost my harmonica!

Me an' da boys'll getcha.

Two lemons and a cherry, lost again!

If you want it? Here it is.
Come and get it ...

An editor - hours of dedication!

It's not mine.

My, this does get heavy!

Ruben and the Jets, at it again.

Would you mind sending that sandwich back this way.

I think I'm going to hit you.

Neither ever listens ... it's more fun that way.

Is it naptime yet???

It's a put-on, neither can read.

No, it's not a camera!

If he had a sense of humor, I wouldn't be in this corner.

"Discretion is the greatest part of valor."

The year moves subtly
Into an eddy
of harvest;
The foliage heaves a sigh
in requiem;
And the heavens freeze
their odyssey.

LOOK,
Fall lingers briefly ...

FALL

TO PLUCK IT IS A PITY,
TO LEAVE IT IS A PITY, AH, THIS VIOLET!

INITIATION

At the advent of a person's membership in most organizations, the newcomer is put through a series of tests. These tests, called collectively "initiation," are designed to prove or disprove one's right of entrance.

Marianhill Central Catholic High School is by no means exempt from this tradition. And so to test our freshmen, and work out the frustrations of the Seniors, we hold ...

THE LONELY FOOTFALL ON OPEN FIELDS IS ANSWERED BY VICTORY

Where are they going??? It's just the beginning!!!

For two and one half months, their spirits rode on eleven uniformed men; embattled on a now dust-laden field.

Eleven men's spirit riding on them. There is more to a passing season than a final score.

BUT FOR THE MOMENT

SENIOR CLASS SOND

Yesterday
words by L. Fournier

Yesterday, we were lost and couldn't find our way ...

Then, we were pretty wild and gay,
But that was only yesterday.

Suddenly, there's a world that seems so new to me ...

But thoughts of Marianhill will always be.
The days went by so rapidly.

As we say goodbye and go on to meet mankind,
Marianhill will linger on in every mind.

Yesterday, graduation seemed so far away.
"We'll remember yesterday!"
"We'll remember yesterday!"

AND THEN, BEYOND.

GRADUATION

On June 11, 1971, the class of said year congregated officially for the last time. Diplomas, speeches and awards were given in a gracefully short ceremony, after which most present proceeded to a reception held in the cafeteria. The entire affair was simple, and except for the traditional hugs and tears, emotions were subdued.

Thus, in extremely good tast and stability, did the Seniors bid farewell to the school.

after 2,150 days ...

Smiles of Success!

At last!

I'm so happy!

Now is the hour ...

Some things we must leave behind.

Is something wrong, Diane?

Today is such a joyful day!!
